

Moonshine

Feeling light-headed

As I caught her eye,

She was inviting

As I passed her by.

Loosing all freedom,

I fell to the ground.

She took me home later

And made me see why.

When you look through a haze,

And you're out on a line,

You just can't satisfy

When you're down on that moonshine.

Held back

My temptation,

Trying to please her,

But still I could not stand.

As morning was dawning,

The feeling returned

As I lay alone with
The lesson I learned.

When you look through a haze,
And you're out on a line,
You just can't satisfy
When you're down on that moonshine.
