

Right or Wrong

So what the hell is wrong ?

And why your life is such a mess

The things that God may send you

Some people say, they're just a test

Right or wrong - you might get burned

But what you gain is what you learn.

Got one too many women,

Don't know quite which way to go

Love can be so expensive

When they want to buy your soul

Right or wrong, don't regret,

What you ask for is what you get.

No point in bitter tears

When someone else has cut you down

'Cause there's a time for leavin'

And there's a time for stickin' around

Right or wrong, you've got to live,

So what you collect is what you give.
