

Walking The Reeperbahn

Walking down the Reeperbahn

Cold wind in my face

There's a high-heeled angel

With love for sale,

Did you know the Beatles

Started in this place ?

Walking down the Reeperbahn

Sorting out the world

I watched you open like a flower

As the story of your life unfurled.

Walking down the Reeperbahn

It doesn't matter where you go

You know the thrill seekers

Are everywhere, from Amsterdam to Tokyo.

Walking down the Reeperbahn

Sex and drugs and rock n roll

What a day, what a day !

How the boys did play

And now its time to say "Guten Abend"
