

Hot Surrender

Some part of me had gone away

Lost in the mist

Since you went on your way

I miss your kiss

But you'll come back – you always do

And I'll try and try again

Oh, you'll come back – you always do

And I'll try and try in vain.

All these tricks we play with illusion

Addicted to our re-union

Every time – hot surrender to you.

When you phone – I'm alright alone

Turning and twisting

Swore I'd say "No" - now here I go

Theres no resisting

You'll come back – you always do

And its just the same

Oh, you'll come back – you always do

And I'll fall, I'll fall again

All these tricks we play with emotion

In the name of 'love and devotion'

Every time – hot surrender to you.
