

Lovers

Lovers laugh

Just like we did when we first met

They say that it passes

That everything fades in the end

I still see you now and again

I say hello, how are you?

You're still looking fine

How has he been treating you?

If I said I felt nothing

I would be pretending

Because – you and me baby

We are like a love story

Without an ending

Lovers cry, like we did

When we walked away

Does love have to die?

Or is what I'm feeling

Just a shadow in time
